U.S. PROBATION OFFICER ACTION AND RESPONSE

On May 28, 2008, Royster was released on $500 bail for the above listed offense. He promptly reported to his probation officer and advised of the arrest. Royster related that on May 23, 2008, he returned home to find his wife intoxicated. She began to accuse him of cheating on her and tried to strike him with an empty liquor bottle. He asserts that he was simply defending himself from her attack, after which, she contacted the police and filed an assault complaint. The offender was arrested shortly thereafter. As a result of his arrest, we have increased Royster's reporting and have directed him to have no contact with his wife until there is a disposition for his pending criminal matter. Additionally, he was directed to move out of their residence and to move in with his mother at 526 Van Ness Avenue, Apartment 2R, Bronx, NY. A High Intensity Field Operation (HIFO) was conducted by several officers to the offender's new residence to reinforce that the offender needs to improve his decision making skills. Additionally, we continue to monitor his case in Manhattan Criminal Court.

The undersigned is respectfully recommending that no action be taken by the Court at this time, as the disposition of this criminal case is pending. We will continue to monitor Royster's proceedings in Manhattan Criminal Court. If the matter should result in a conviction, a violation petition or Request for Court Action will be promptly forwarded to the Court.

We will notify Your Honor promptly if additional supervision issues arise.

Should Your Honor wish to take immediate action, we stand ready to execute the orders of the Court.

Respectfully submitted,

Chris J. Stanton
Chief U.S. Probation Officer
